OF SWAN VALLEY

ANNUAL REPORT
2023-24

REPORT FROM THE BOARD

Dwayne Strate
Board Chair

By the end of 2024 the Community Foundation of Swan Valley (CFSV) will have gifted over $1.6 million back to the Swan Valley community. Only 3 short years ago the Board made the proud announcement that it had hit the $1 million mark. To put that in perspective, it took the first 16 years of the Foundation to reach the first $1 million in gifts and only 3 years to add another $600,000.

The Foundation adopted the slogan "Drive for Five" this past year as an incentive to reach for $5 million in donations from the Swan Valley. To date $4.2 million dollars have been donated to the CFSV. The "Five" is a realistic target when you consider the Swan Valley community donated $372,321 in just this past year.

As amazing as these numbers sound, it's not hard to understand why the CFSV has had such success when you look around the Valley and bear witness to the strength of community spirit.

This community spirit is highly evident during the Foundation's spring and fall granting nights. The vast majority of those receiving gifts and speaking to their respective projects are Volunteers! Whether they are building a warmup shelter for trail riders or coaching a youth sports team ...they are Volunteers!

Even small endeavours such as donating time or funds to groups like the Foundation, or buying raffle tickets from a youth organization, or giving time to groups or individuals who would otherwise struggle to survive is vital to community well being.

This year the Board says farewell and thank you to board members Kim Paterson and Henry Rasmussen as they step down from the CFSV. The Foundation welcomes new board members Scott Tibble and Shayla Nykolaishen.

In the upcoming year the Foundation will give $211,000 back to the community. The Community Foundation of Swan Valley is proud to support the recipients of the awards, and praises the efforts made by the community at large to make the Swan Valley a better place.

CELEBRATING THE LEGACY OF BEGGY PAULSON

The Community Foundation of Swan Valley owes its inception to the vision and dedication of a few key individuals, among whom Beggy Paulson stands out. Alongside Rex Leach, Conrad Robinson, and Doug Hinchcliffe, Beggy played a pivotal role in establishing the Foundation, which has since become a cornerstone of community support and development. He was an inaugural member of the Board of Directors, serving for 7 years.

The idea for the Foundation was sparked during casual coffee meetings at Woody's Goodies Bakery. Doug Hinchcliffe, inspired by information from Sharon Campbell and her daughter Denise, who worked for the Winnipeg Foundation, shared the concept with his friends. Beggy, leveraging his legal expertise, reached out to a lawyer friend in Dauphin for guidance. Encouraged by his friend, Beggy, Rex, and Conrad, all passionate about community service, embarked on the journey to create the Foundation.

Beggy's legal acumen was instrumental in setting up and registering the Foundation as a non-profit corporation. The team conducted extensive research, with significant help from Norm Bruce, who provided access to by-laws from the Rocky Mountain Elk Foundation. The Thomas Sill Foundation's offer of $200,000, contingent on raising $100,000 locally, was a crucial milestone. Thanks to efforts in establishing the Founder's Club, this target was met within months.

Reflecting on the Foundation's early days, Beggy recalls the community's enthusiasm and the collaboration with municipalities to distribute funds. The Foundation has grown beyond their initial dreams, serving the entire Valley and ensuring inclusivity.

Beggy takes pride in numerous projects, including the new building for SVAPL, Thunderhill Ski Club, and the Snowmobile Club warmup shelter. He is particularly pleased with the support extended to smaller clubs, fostering a sense of community.

Looking ahead, Beggy hopes the Foundation continues its success, with enthusiastic individuals stepping forward to join the board.

He was delighted to attend the 2024 Spring Grant night, witnessing the Foundation's impact firsthand. With just over $4 million raised over 20 years, Beggy wishes the Foundation continued growth and success, confident in its enduring legacy.
